The Bachpan Manao mission has been buzzing for the past two weeks. Here's what's been happening!

Through Online Gatherings Celebrations and Campaigns

 India, The Better India, Tech Mahindra Foundation, Bookosmia and Planet Read discussing early childhood.
 They also brought along something that represented childhood for each of them! Watch the recording here.
- Societal Thinking brought in voices from the ground to open up a conversation on Reimagining Early Childhood Education. Makkala Jagriti, Key Education Foundation and Rocket Learning Watch the recording

Through Celebrations

- Can fathers be role models to their daughters? Dharma Life believes so! The #BeHerHero initiative was launched in over 1000 villages to encourage rural fathers to play a more meaningful role in their daughter's childhood, through a 3-day event that culminated in a talent show.
- Bookosmia brought children's voices to life at the Bangalore Literature Festival by organising a lovely children's corner where they expressed themselves through multiple modes of art. In the founder Nidhi Mishra's words, "It is moving to see what it would be like if children were allowed a space to just sit and colour or write a story, become aware that they too are creative and are appreciated for their expression."
- #CelebratingBachpan and how! Tech Mahindra Foundation conducted numerous activities and events from November 14th 24th with children, teachers, volunteers, and staff as a part of Bachpan Manao's celebrations across the country. From reliving, and reminiscing childhood memories to the Tech Mahindra MD & CEO Designate Mr Mohit Joshi's virtual interaction with children from their ARISE, and ARISE+ schools, the celebrations were great fun across the country while also bringing to light the importance of early childhood.
